1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket I had been wrapped in. The air was crisp and clear, and I felt a sense of freedom. I had been told that the weather would be perfect, and they were right. The sun was shining brightly, and the clouds were just what I needed. I had been told that the weather would be perfect, and they were right. The sun was shining brightly, and the clouds were just what I needed. I had been told that the weather would be perfect, and they were right. The sun was shining brightly, and the clouds were just what I needed.
